Welcome from Molly Chamberlin
Director of Educational Options

Welcome to the Indiana Department of Education's annual informational meeting for new and existing charter schools! As the new director of the Educational Options Division, which includes charter schools, alternative education programs, and McKinney-Vento homeless education programs, I am excited to be working with such exceptionally talented and creative people as yourselves.

I look forward to networking with all of you over the next two days, and I invite you to share with me your ideas, innovations, and concerns regarding charter schools in Indiana. I feel that together we can increase educational opportunities for students who are looking for high quality options in the public education system.
